

Hadley Park

Summary of Rules and Regulations

Rules and Regulations are for the safety and enjoyment of everyone residing in Hadley Park. Please adhere to all the rules at all times. The Board of Directors is responsible, under North Carolina law, to preserve, protect and maintain the Community. The Board may levy fines for violations of these rules as well as violations of the Declaration or Bylaws, as stipulated in the governing documents consistent with the North Carolina Planned Community Act, Chapter 47-F of the North Carolina General Statutes. Some of the rules have been duplicated from the Declaration or Bylaws; the Board of Directors has created some for this community. Please refer to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions ("DCCR") for complete details.

- A) Architectural Improvements – No improvements, whether permanent or temporary are allowed without approval from the Architectural Review Committee. To include but not limited to: Fences, walls, bulkheads, retaining walls, window units, pools, hot tubs, fountains, planting or landscaping or any other structural changes to a homeowner's property. Article VIII, Section 2. Note: Trampolines are covered under this section as "other sports or play apparatus" and must be approved by the Architectural Review Committee. However, flowers, bushes and trees do not need approval if planted within an existing bed.
- B) Maintenance – Each owner shall be responsible for the exterior maintenance of his or her dwelling as follows: Paint, repair, replace and care of roofs, windows, gutters and down spouts, concrete drives and walkways, exterior building surfaces and other exterior improvements. All owners shall keep their Lots, whether occupied or unoccupied, free of all trash, rubbish, and debris and shall keep all Lots in a neat and attractive condition. All improvements erected on Lots shall be maintained in a clean, neat and orderly condition and in a good state of maintenance and repair. The owners shall be responsible for the maintenance of the trees, shrubs and planting on their Lots. Article VIII, Section 3. ADDITION: Porches (front or back) may not be used for storage.
- C) Land Use – All Lots shall be used for single-family residential purposes only and common recreational purposes ancillary thereto and for no other purpose. Only one family may occupy a Lot as a principal residence at any one time. Article IX, Section 1.
- D) Nuisance – No obnoxious or offensive activity shall be conducted upon any lot or in any dwelling nor shall anything be done thereon or therein which may become an annoyance or nuisance to the Neighborhood. Article IX, Section 2.
- E) Pets – No animals, livestock or poultry or any kind shall be kept or maintained on any Lot or in any dwelling except dogs, cats or other common household pets (Limit of two (2) per household), may be kept or maintained provided they are not kept or maintained for commercial purposes. Article IX, Section 3. ADDITION: All pet owners are responsible for keeping their animal on his/her premises. Animals may be off premises if under the control of a competent person and restrained by a chain, leash, harness or other means of physical control. Each owner is responsible for picking up after their pet. All pet food must be stored indoors.
- F) Temporary Structures – No improvement or structure of a temporary nature shall be erected or allowed to remain on any Lot unless and until the Association has granted permission for the same. No outdoor clotheslines shall be permitted to be erected or allowed on any Lot. Article IX, Section 4.

- M) Leasing – No building on any Lot may be leased except in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Association. Article IX, Section 18.

ADDITION:

- 1) Property owners who intend to lease a dwelling unit in Hadley Park should first contact the HOA (IPM) to review the appropriate steps and documents for renting.
- 2) No dwelling unit shall be rented for a period of less than twelve (12) months.
- 3) Any owner who rents a dwelling unit has an obligation to immediately report such rental to the association management company including the rental period along with the names and telephone numbers of the tenants.
- 4) It is the landlord's responsibility to deal with complaints against their tenant.
- 5) All landlords are to include in their lease agreement a requirement stipulating their tenants must abide by all HOA Rules and Regulations. It is also the landlord's responsibility to provide copies of the HOA Rules and Regulations to their tenant and obtain the tenant's signature acknowledging receipt of same (see Document Receipt Checklist attached).

N) Tenants - Maintenance of Yards and Flowerbeds (NEW)

- 1) If a lease between homeowner and tenant stipulates that the tenant is responsible for yard maintenance (weeding, planting, mulching, etc.), it is the responsibility of the landlord to make sure the yard is maintained and to address the situation if it is not.
- 2) If the yard is not maintained, the HOA will send a letter to the landlord and the landlord will have 10 days to bring the property up to presentable conditions.
- 3) If the situation is not addressed after 10 days the HOA will hire someone to pull weeds and mulch or do whatever is necessary to have the yard appear maintained. The invoice for this service will be sent to the landlord.

O) Bird Feeders and Black Bears (NEW) – All hanging detachable bird feeders must be removed from yards during the period April 1 through December 1 and permanently installed bird feeders (i.e. feeder is affixed to a post) must be clean of bird feed during the same period when black bears are searching for easy sources of food. Black bears generally hibernate beginning in December until late March. Therefore, residents will be allowed to install bird feeders and/or feed birds during the bears' winter hibernation (December 1 through April 1).

PLEASE NOTE: Any violations of the above rules will be noted in a letter from IPM to the homeowner. If the situation is not resolved, a second letter will be sent. If the violation has not been remedied after the second letter, a fine will be charged to the homeowner.
