

HADLEY PARK HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION
ARCHITECTURAL GUIDELINES
Effective March 10, 2008

These guidelines were taken from Hadley Park's Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions.

PURPOSE

The purpose of these guidelines for architectural review committee is to help keep Hadley Park attractive by ensuring design compatibility. Design compatibility is needed to protect property values and enhance the enjoyment of residents. The guidelines specify the manner in which the protective covenants and restrictions are to be implemented. All Hadley Park homeowners agreed to comply with the covenants at the time they purchased their property.

ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Architectural Review Committee (ARC) utilizes the guidelines to enforce the design aspects of the covenants fairly and consistently. Any changes to the exteriors of the homes or lots must be approved by the ARC. The ARC also has responsibility for ensuring that lawns and other plantings are maintained in an attractive manner.
